EXPERIENCE

01/1988-01/2000

KQED Inc. San Francisco
Manager

As a member of the KQED internal communications team, I was independently responsible for the design and production of printed materials requested by various departments within the organization. These materials were produced with a Macintosh operating system utilizing Quark Xpress, Illustrator and Photoshop.

01/1986-01/1988

KRON TV San Francisco
Designer

For two years, I worked at the San Francisco NBC affiliate designing for both print and broadcast. In addition to designing TV Guide ads and various community outreach printed materials, I worked with the news department to conceptualize and render computer generated graphics under intense deadlines for daily newscasts.
