

How to Apply for a Job: External Candidates

This guide provides step by step instructions to apply for a job at UC Berkeley as an External candidate.

1. Navigation

From the External Applicants page (<https://jobs.berkeley.edu/job-listings/external-applicants>), click the External Applicants Apply Here button.

If this is your first time visiting the site, click New User to Register and create a profile. Once your profile is created, you can follow this job aid to apply.

If you are a returning user please click the Sign In link in the upper right corner.

Important Note: If you previously used our system and this is your first time logging in after Sept. 3, 2019, your login was changed to the email address you previously provided. You will now use that email address as your login.

You will be required to reset your password.

If you have been active within the last year your previous profile was moved into our new system. If you cannot find your profile you will need to register again as a new user.

2. Review postings

Begin a job search by browsing through open job postings (use the arrow keys to navigate to other pages to see all postings), or use the Keywords search.

Click the More Options link for a more targeted search for specific criteria (e.g. only Career postings).

Note: You may wish to review the "How to Create a Saved Search with Notifications" job aid on how to save searches that will automatically email job openings you may be interested in.

Have you been a member of CalPERS within 180 days of this application?

A ☒ Yes ☐ No

Are you a current University of California Employee?

B ☒ Yes ☐ No

Are you a former employee of the University of California (but did not retire)?

C ☒ Yes ☐ No

Are you:

D ☐ retired from the University of California receiving monthly payment
☐ retired from the University of California and received a lump sum payment
☐ a participant in the Vocational Training Program
☐ a participant in a layoff with rehire privileges
☐ none of the Above

Do any relatives currently working at the University of California?

E ☒ Yes ☐ No

Exit Save as Draft Previous Next

- A. Select Yes if you have been a member of CalPers within the last 180 days. Choose No if you have not. That means either you were not a member of CalPERS, or, were a member more than 180 days prior.
- B. Select Yes if you are a current UC employee at any UC location. (you will then be asked to enter your current location). Choose No if you are not a current employee at any UC location.
- C. Select Yes if you are a former employee of the UC system (but have not retired from UC). If you answer Yes the system will ask you to indicate which campus(es) and if remembered, the last date of employment (optional). Choose No if you are not a former employee of the UC system OR if you are, but you have retired.
- D. There are several options, however, only one answer is accepted.

- If you have Retired from any UC, please specify if you are receiving either a monthly payment, or have previously received a lump sum payout.
- Do not select the Vocational Training program option unless you have been counseled to do so by an appropriate UC Berkeley staff managing this process.
- Do not select the Layoff with Rehire privileges unless you've met with the SPC Coordinator and are aware of the duration & terms of invoking your Preferential rehire status. Not all laid off employees are eligible for this. (If you are a Preferential Rehire AND retired, select this option instead of the earlier retiree option).
- If none of these apply to you, please select None of the Above.

E. Please indicate if you have any near relatives who are currently working at UC Berkeley. A near relative is defined as a spouse, domestic partner, child (including child of a domestic partner, sibling, in-law or step-relative. You do not need to indicate relatives working at other UC locations.

9: Applying: Self Identification - Disability

Indicate if you have a disability (or select "I don't wish to answer").

This information is not shared with Hiring Managers or Recruiters. Click the Next button when you are done.

Why are you being asked to complete this form?

Because we do business with the government, we must reach out to, hire, and provide equal opportunity to qualified people with disabilities.¹ To help us measure how well we are doing, we are asking you to tell us if you have a disability or if you ever had a disability. Completing this form is voluntary, but we hope that you will choose to fill it out. If you are applying for a job, any answer you give will be kept private and will not be used against you in any way.

If you already work for us, your answer will not be used against you in any way. Because a person may become disabled at any time, we are required to ask all of our employees to update their information every five years. You may voluntarily self-identify as having a disability on this form without fear of any punishment because you did not identify as having a disability earlier.

How do I know if I have a disability?

You are considered to have a disability if you have a physical or mental impairment or medical condition that substantially limits a major life activity, or if you have a history or record of such an impairment or medical condition.

Disabilities include, but are not limited to:

<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Blindness• Deafness• Cancer• Diabetes• Epilepsy	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Autism• Cerebral palsy• HIV/AIDS• Schizophrenia• Muscular dystrophy	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Bipolar disorder• Major depression• Multiple sclerosis (MS)• Missing limbs or partially missing limbs	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Post-traumatic stress disorder (PTSD)• Obsessive compulsive disorder• Impairments requiring the use of a wheelchair• Intellectual disability (previously called mental retardation)

Please select one of the options below:

☐ YES, I HAVE A DISABILITY (or previously had a disability)

☐ NO, I DON'T HAVE A DISABILITY

☒ I DON'T WISH TO ANSWER

10: Applying: Self Identification - Veterans

Indicate if you have a veteran status. Read the Definitions for more information. Click Next when done.

This information is not shared with Hiring Managers or Recruiters.

▼ Definitions
The University of California invites all employees to voluntarily self-identify their veteran status. As a federal contractor the University is subject to the Vietnam Era Veterans' Readjustment Assistance Act of 1974, as amended by the Jobs for Veterans Act of 2002, 38 U.S.C. 4212 (VEVRAA), which requires Government contractors to take affirmative action to employ and advance in employment: (1) disabled veterans; (2) recently separated veterans; (3) active duty wartime or campaign badge veterans; 4) Armed Forces service medal veterans; and (5) Vietnam Era Veterans. These classifications are defined below and are hereafter referred to all together as "protected veterans". If you believe you belong to any of the categories of protected veterans, please self-identify your status as a protected veteran by checking the appropriate box(es) below. These classifications are defined as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A "disabled veteran" is one of the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◦ A veteran of the U.S. military, ground, naval or air service who is entitled to compensation (or who but for the receipt of military retired pay would be entitled to compensation) under laws administered by the Secretary of Veterans Affairs; or ◦ A person who was discharged or released from active duty because of a service connected disability. • A "recently separated veteran" means any veteran during the three-year period beginning on the date of such veteran's discharge or release from active duty in the U.S. military, ground, naval, or air service. • An "active duty wartime or campaign badge veteran" means a veteran who served on active duty in the U.S. military, ground, naval or air service during a war, or in a campaign or expedition for which a campaign badge has been authorized under the laws administered by the Department of Defense. • An "Armed forces service medal veteran" means a veteran who, while serving on active duty in the U.S. military, ground, naval or air service, participated in a United States military operation for which an Armed Forces service medal was awarded pursuant to Executive Order 12985. Protected veterans may have additional rights under USERRA - the Uniformed Services Employment and Reemployment Rights Act. In particular, if you were absent from employment in order to perform service in the uniformed service, you may be entitled to be reemployed by your employer in the position you would have obtained with reasonable certainty if not for the absence due to service. For more information, call the U.S. Department of Labor's Veterans Employment and Training Service (VETS), toll-free, at 1-866-4-USA-DOL.
Self-Identification
If you believe you belong to any of the classifications of protected veterans listed above, please indicate by selecting the appropriate option below. 11. Applying: Self Identification - Diversity

Providing this information is optional. This information is not used to consider employment and is not shared with the Recruiter, Hiring Supervisor or anyone else participating in the recruitment. This information is used for general statistics for reporting on the equity of recruitments or consideration for developing programs to support diversity initiatives.

VOLUNTARY SELF IDENTIFICATION OF RACE AND ETHNICITY

The employer is subject to certain governmental record keeping and reporting requirements for the administration of civil rights laws and regulations. In order to comply with these laws, the employer invites employees to voluntarily self-identify their race or ethnicity. Submission of this information is voluntary and refusal to provide it will not subject you to any adverse treatment. The information obtained will be kept confidential and may only be used in accordance with the provisions of applicable laws, executive orders, and regulations, including those that require the information to be summarized and reported to the federal government for civil rights enforcement. When reported, data will not identify any specific individual.
